

Washington, DC -- On Tuesday, January 6, 2009, U.S. Rep. Michael A. Arcuri (D-Utica) was sworn in to the 111th Congress and officially began his 2nd term in Congress representing New York's 24th Congressional District.

"Our country faces many challenges, but in adversity there is also opportunity – opportunity for innovation and new ideas to create jobs, fix our health care system and build a new energy future," Arcuri said. "It is a great honor to represent the 24th Congressional District in Congress, and I will continue fighting for our region."

###